

Pinot Noir

The most seductive and delicate of all red wines, it shows nuances of red berries combined with earthy, autumnal tones. It will go well with lighter meats or full flavored fish.

Red: U.S.A., Blue: France.

2008	LEESE-FITCH, Sonoma	$ 35.50
2007	BOURGOGNE ROUGE, Domaine Prieuré	$ 42.50
2006	MARSANNAY, Louis Latour	$ 43.50
2008	PINE RIDGE "Forefront", Willamette Valley, Oregon	$ 45.50
2007	DOMAINE CHANDON Pinot Meunier , Napa	$ 46.50
2006	SAVIGNY LES BEAUNE, Single Cru, Moutier Aimé	$ 52.50
2000	ELKHORN PEAK, Napa Valley	$ 52.50
2006	CHASSAGNE-MONTRACHET, Louis Latour	$ 53.50
2004	SANTENAY "Charmes", Roger Belland	$ 60.50
2005	ALOXE CORTON, Louis Latour	$ 68.50
2005	MERCUREY, Frédéric Magnien	$ 68.50
2005	FIXIN, En Olivier, Philippe Livera	$ 69.50
2005	VOLNAY, Louis Latour	$ 70.50
2006	PERNAND-VERGELESSES Les Belles Filles	$ 74.50
2005	NUITS-ST.-GEORGES, Louis Latour	$ 82.50
2006	CHAMBOLLE-MUSIGNY, Domaine Arlaud	$ 85.50
2007	TWOMEY, Russian River Valley	$ 90.50
2004	POMMARD Les Cras, Tête de Cuvée, R. Belland	$ 93.50
2006	DOMAINE SERENE Winery Hill, Willamette, Oregon	$ 130.50

Serious about Pinot Noir? Check our Grands Crus and Premier Crus from Bourgogne next page.