

Alternative Reds

This page highlights the varietals we might not think about as often as we should. They are interesting, different and a good value for the money.

2005	CAHORS Château FAMAÉY, Malbec	$ 29.50
	From "Rugby Country" in the Southwest of France
2008	TABALI Reserva Carmenère, Lomari Valley	$ 38.50
	Spicy, black plum finish, 18 months french oak.
2007	MORGON, Henri Fessy	$ 41.50
	From Beaujolais, France. Gamay grape.
	Light red wine with a pleasant fruity character.
2006	SEIDELBURG Pinotage, Paarl, South Africa	$ 41.50
	The flagship varietal of South Africa.
2007	GRAN MALBEC, Flecha de Los Andes	$ 47.50
	Baron de Rothschild's property in Argentina.
2005	SPANN VINEYARDS Charbono, Napa Valley	$ 47.50
	Ancient varietal very rare in California.
2004	WHITMAN Cellars, Narcissa Red, Columbia	$ 51.50
	Cabernet Sauv and Franc, Syrah, Malbec, Merlot
2004	PORTIA Tempranillo, Ribera del duero	$ 64.50
	From Spain
2005	ARTHUR EARL, Grenache, Santa Ynez	$ 64.50
2004	FALCOR Zinfandel, Sonoma County	$ 57.50