

Pinot Noir

The most seductive and delicate of all red wines, it shows nuances of red berries combined with earthy, autumnal tones. It will go well with lighter meats or full flavored fish.

From France:

2005	MARSANNAY, Louis Latour	$ 40.50
2005	GIVRY 1er Cru "Les Grand Prétans", Besson	$ 63.50
2004	CHOREY-LES-BEAUNE, Domaine Maillard	$ 66.50
2005	SAVIGNY-LES-BEAUNE, J. Drouhin	$ 73.50
2005	VOLNAY Vieilles Vignes, V. Girardin	$ 91.50
2002	ALOXE-CORTON, Domaine Maillard	$ 96.50
2005	POMMARD, J. Drouhin	$ 101.50
2004	NUITS-ST.-GEORGES Chênes Carteaux, Gouges	$ 101.50
2005	GEVREY-CHAMBERTIN Vieilles Vignes, V. Girardin	$ 108.50
2004	GEVREY CHAMBERTIN "Les Crais" 1er Cru, Guillon	$ 121.50
2004	VOLNAY 1er Cru "Clos des Chênes", Bouley	$ 165.50

From the United States:

2005	MAC MURRAY RANCH, Sonoma County	$ 40.50
2006	DE LOACH, Russian River Valley	$ 47.50
2006	KING ESTATE, Oregon	$ 57.50
2005	DOMAINE CHANDON Pinot Meunier , Napa V.	$ 63.50
2004	ELKHORN PEAK, Napa Valley	$ 70.50
2004	TRUCHARD, Carneros	$ 71.50
2006	ETUDE, Napa Valley	$ 88.50
2005	ALEXANDER and WAYNE, Santa Rita Hills	$ 99.50
2006	MERRIMAN, Yamhill Carlton District, Oregon	$ 113.50
2004	SONOMA COAST VINEYARDS, Dijon clones	$138.50

Other:

2006	NAHUEL Alto Valle de Uco, Argentina	$ 24.50
2006	DASHWOOD, Marlborough, New Zealand	$ 39.50