

Life is a ~~Cabernet~~ Merlot!

Our collection of American Merlots. Less tannic than Cabernet Sauvignon they are still a good match for most red meats.

- |      |   |           |
|------|---|-----------|
| 2005 | BOCAGE, Monterey  | $ 33.50  |
|      | Second Label of SAN SABA, owned by Dr. Lemmon from Texas.      |           |
| 2004 | PROVENANCE VINEYARDS, Napa Valley                                     | $ 45.50  |
|      | 100 % Merlot, loads of fruit with a nice oaky finish.          |           |
| 2005 | FERRARI-CARANO, Sonoma  | $ 46.50  |
|      | Beautiful vineyards produce rich tasting, true to style wines. |           |
| 2004 | DRY CREEK VINEYARDS, Dry Creek Valley                                 | $ 47.50  |
|      | A soft Bordeaux style blend of Merlot, Cab Franc and Cab Sauv  |           |
| 2005 | PINE RIDGE "Crimson Creek", Napa Valley                               | $ 69.50  |
|      | A blend of appellations surrounding Napa V. Excellent balance. |           |
| 2004 | STAG'S LEAP, Napa Valley  | $ 70.50  |
|      | A full-bodied merlot in the Stag's Leap tradition.             |           |
| 2005 | CHAPPELLET, Napa Valley   | $ 74.50  |
|      | Bold blackberry, mocha, and spice with ripe tannins.           |           |
| 2005 | ROBERT FOLEY VINEYARDS, Napa Valley                                   | $ 116.50 |
|      | Our best merlot: ripe, round, berry aromas, espresso finish    |           |
|      | 2007 Winemaker of the Year                                     |           |