

Alternative Reds

This page highlights the varietals we might not think about as often as we should. They are interesting, different and a good value for the money.

From Beaujolais, France. Gamay grape. Light red wine with a pleasant fruity character.

2006	LOUIS TETE, Beaujolais-Villages	$ 29.50
2005	MORGON, Georges Dubœuf	$ 30.50
2006	JULIÉNAS, Château des Capitans	$ 33.50

2005	CHÂTEAU POTELLE Cougar Pass Robles and Napa fruit.	$ 39.50
------	--	----------

2006	PASCUAL TOSO Reserve, Argentina MALBEC, 12 months oak aging, lots of fruit, not tannic.	$ 40.50
------	---	----------

2002	SUMMA VARIETALIS, Dominio de Valdepusa (Tempranillo, Spain)	$ 68.50
------	---	----------

2005	CHÂTEAU BARRAIL CHEVROL, Fronsac Cabernet franc and Merlot	$ 28.50
------	--	----------

2006	ALAMOS Malbec, Argentina Violet aromatics and deep-lush finish.	$ 31.50
------	---	----------

2005	LEWIS GRACE PATRIOT, Tempranillo From California	$ 54.50
------	--	----------